

GENERAL PRACTICE AWARDS 2018

GP Trainee of the Year

Award Entry Form

Description of the award:

This award seeks to recognise a GP Trainee who has made an outstanding contribution to patients or their practice. It is open to all UK medical graduates who are currently in postgraduate training to become a GP. We invite applications from GP Trainees themselves and nominations from practice colleagues.

Applications should demonstrate all or some of the below:

- A brilliant individual who has made a real difference to the provision of care in their practice.
- Evidence that their individual efforts and imagination have improved patient care and/or safety; for example, through leading improvement projects, auditing practice systems, raising awareness about important issues, helping to turn a struggling practice around.
- Particular credit will be given to applications with evidence of enthusiasm and the desire to learn from their mentors, colleagues and patients.
- Evidence of how their contribution is aligned with the objectives of the Five Year Forward View.

Criteria that judges will be marking against:

- Clear evidence of the nominee's enthusiasm, imagination and/or innovation. This can include anecdotal or personal accounts.
- Evidence of how these qualities have influenced patient care and/or the success of the practice. This can include anecdotal or personal accounts.
- Measurable and defined improvements in their own practice and skills throughout the course of the training placement. This can include anecdotal or personal accounts.
- Evidence that the nominee exhibits key competencies and values of general practice which will be an asset to the profession and which he/she continues to develop: such as ethics, reliability, compassion, competence, communication.
