

GENERAL PRACTICE AWARDS 2018

General Practitioner of the Year

Award Entry Form

Description of the award:

This award seeks to recognise a GP who has made an outstanding contribution in their area to patient care or professional leadership. It is open to all qualified GPs practising in the UK, including partners and sessional GPs. We invite applications from both GPs themselves and nominations from practice colleagues.

Applications should demonstrate all or some of the below:

- A brilliant individual who has made a real difference to the provision of care in their practice and/or area.
- Evidence that their individual efforts and imagination have improved patient care and/or safety; for example, through leading improvement projects, innovative teaching of GP Trainees, or helping to turn a struggling practice around.
- Evidence of how their contribution is aligned with the objectives of the Five Year Forward View.
- Evidence of improvements in morale/development/wellbeing of their team or colleagues; for example, through campaigning for change, securing funding or mentoring team members.
- Credit will be given to applications with evidence of good leadership and the overcoming of significant obstacles.
- Implementation of a project or service that has reduced pressure and freed up the time of other practice staff.

Criteria that judges will be marking against:

- Tangible evidence of the GP's impact on their patients, practice, colleagues or the local area.
- Evidence of exceptional local leadership, imagination and/or innovation and how these qualities have influenced the outcome of their work.
- Measurable and defined improvements in patient care or organisational efficiency. This can include anecdotal or personal accounts.
- Evidence that the nominee exhibits key competencies and values of medicine which he/she continues to develop: such as ethics, reliability, compassion, competence, communication.
