

GENERAL PRACTICE AWARDS 2018

Respiratory Care Award

Award Entry Form

Description of the award:

This award seeks to recognise an individual or team who have demonstrated excellence when working with patients who have respiratory conditions, helping to improve their lives and the management of their symptoms. Applications will be invited from individuals or primary care teams delivering invaluable patient care for any long-term respiratory condition such as asthma and COPD.

Applications should demonstrate all or some of the below:

- Effective communication of risk factors and symptoms with patients.
- Examples of effective team working and staff motivation.
- Innovative programmes to help at-risk patients change behaviours.
- Excellent links with partner organisations.
- Implementation of effective medicines management schemes.

Criteria that judges will be marking against:

- Clearly defined objectives for quality improvement within a project.
- Clearly described interventions.
- Innovation and new ways of working.
- Evidence of overcoming obstacles encountered in the implementation phase.
- Quantifiable improvements in the communication of risk factors and symptoms with patients.
- Evidence proving the sustainability of the project/initiative.
- The ability for the project/initiative to be replicated across other practices.
